

ONE-OF-A-KIND HOME FURNISHINGS, ACCESSORIES AND UNIQUE GIFTS ARE CENTERPIECE FOR CHIC PHOENIX BOUTIQUE

-In The Pink Boutique Offers Up Unique, Quaint and Personalized Items to Its Clientele-

Phoenix, AZ – July 1st, 2010 – These days, people are much more selective about where they spend their hard earned money. That’s why those behind the innovative store, In The Pink Boutique, have created a serene shopping environment with only the highest quality products for their customers.

Today, Orca Communications Unlimited, LLC is proud to announce that In The Pink Boutique has joined our fabulous team.

In The Pink has a nice selection of unique items and beautiful accessories to be featured in every home. You can find them online at www.inthepinkboutique or visit the storefront, which is located in the heart of the Arcadia district in Phoenix. The store has a chic design that is filled with personal touches and wonderful gift ideas all thanks to the work of Owner and Interior Designer Andrea Evans.

Evans takes her love for all things beautiful and passes them onto her customers. She is always in search of the perfect items for her boutique, so she travels all over North America and Europe, hunting for the absolute best selection of vintage and classic merchandise. You’ll find a wide selection of choices at the boutique including furniture pieces, romantic candle settings, artwork, clothing, jewelry and much more!

Since she was a little girl, Evans dreamed of owning her own store, much like her own mother did while she was growing up. Evans says besides providing great customer service, she wants to “create a place that you could buy multiple items without having to go to different stores.”
